HOG MARKET IS STILL FIRM

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 2.—There was a firm tone in the hog market during the day at North Portland, with only a small run. Local packers have advanced their contract price for Willamette valley stock to $9.60 for the week, thereby indicating a very good condition. Extreme tops are quoted at the moment around $9.65.

General hog market:
Choice light weights 9.45 Good light weights 9.50@9.55 Medium weights 9.60@9.65 Rough heavy 9.60@9.65

Cattle Market Weaker.

In general the market for cattle is weaker and fractionally lower at North Portland. Only a handful of stuff arrived in the yards over night.
Real top steers are steady enough at $7 for prime heavy, with prime light $6.50@6.75. Weakness is shown for cows at $5.00@5.25 for the extreme top.

General cattle market range: Prime light steers $6.50@6.75 Prime heavy steers 6.75@7.00 Good light steers 5.00@6.25

LIBRARY BALL AT ECHO WAS VERY ENJOYABLE

Three Hundred Attend First Annual Gathering—Pers. and News of Echo People.

(East Oregonian Special.)

ECHO, Nov. 2.—Echo's first library ball was held here at the city hall Tuesday night. It was a Halloween masquerade ball. About three hundred were present. The lady receiving the prize for the best masquerade was Mrs. George Coppinger, who represented the chief industry of eastern Oregon, and was dressed in a most made of hurlap and heavily trimmed in beautiful heads of wheat.

The gentleman winning the prize was Guy Nordene, who represented a railroad in 1917 if Hughes is elected.

Mrs. Wm. Bowdler gave a dinner at her home yesterday afternoon for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid A lumni number was present.

W. von Winkler, a telegraph operator, is back here after a visit with his parents at Bellingham, Wash.

Echo's school teachers, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hamman, Mrs. W. B. Hinkle, Miss Elsie Gibson and Miss Beulah E. Barker are in Pendleton attending the teachers' institute.

Miss Heloise Phillips, who is teaching on Rutter creek, went up to Pendleton on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. J. T. Hoskins and daughter, Ashli, and Mrs. C. P. Bowman and son Perry, are visiting in Pendleton this week with friends.

Carl Scholl left for his home in Walla Walla this morning after a short visit here.

G. P. Higginbotham and wife, formerly of this place but now of North Powder, are looking after their farm interests here.

Miss Opal Callison was among the many Pendleton visitors who were here to attend the library ball.

J. W. Durrill went up to Pendleton last evening.

STEAMER BEAR STILL

Held in the Sand

EUREKA, Cal., Nov. 2.—Fears that the steamer Bear, ashore near Cape Mendocino, was in immediate danger of breaking up or being carried away from the beach, were dispelled at last today, when reports came from the scene of the wreck near Cape Mendocino that the steamer had ceased to swing and now appears to be held solidly in the grip of the sand.
For four days a terrific northeasterly sea has been battering at the Bear, and yesterday she began to swing at the bow and stern, investigation showing that the sand had washed away

Stocks and feeders 5.00@5.50 Prime dehorned cows and heifers 5.00@5.25 Common cows 4.00@4.50
Bulls 3.50@4.50
Prime light veal calves 7.00@7.50 Prime heavy veal calves 4.00@6.00

Sheep and Lambs Firm.

Market throughout the mutton and lamb division at North Portland is still quoted with a firm tone. No change in prices is indicated. Receipts over night were limited.

General mutton and lamb market.

LABOR WILL BE STRONG FOR WILSON

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—President Wilson's vote in New York labor circles may be judged from the straw vote taken at a meeting of stationary firemen, local number 66, last night. A printed ballot was used, the result being:
Wilson, 144; Hughes, 4; Benson, 6.
Timothy Healey, international president of the union in sending these figures to the Woodrow Wilson Independent League, writes: "You may be sure this is how this bunch will cast their ballot on November seventh."

U. S. TO SEND SURGEONS

TO TOUR SOUTH AMERICA

The Mayo Brothers in Party That Will Seek Co-operation With Physicians.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—At the request and suggestion of the United States government, a number of distinguished surgeons of this country will go to South America next summer to invite officially the leading doctors of the Latin-American republics to come into closer touch with their confreres of the north. This announcement was made at the annual convocation of the American College of Surgeons today at the Belvue-Stratford, held in conjunction with the final proceedings of the Clinical Congress of Surgeons.

The representatives chosen up to date include Dr. Edward Martin of this city, Drs. Charles N. and William J. Mayo of Rochester, Minn.; Drs.
Franklin H. Martin and Albert J.
Ochsner of Chicago, and Dr. Franklin P. Simpson of Pittsburgh. They will formulate plans for their journey within a few weeks and report to the federal government. The visiting Americans will visit all South American countries.

Her Son Subject to Croup.

"My son Edwin is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irwin, New Kensington, Pa. "I put in many sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief." Obtainable everywhere.—Adv.

FAMILY TROUBLE IS

CAUSE OF KILLING

ELLENBURG, Wash., Nov. 2.— Rollo Evans, 31, was shot and instantly killed this morning by Walter Hansen at the home of the latter at Swank Prairie, 15 miles northwest of Ellensburg. Family troubles are supposed to have been the cause of the shooting, which occurred at the gate of Hansen's home. It is said the men have been having trouble for some time, it being brought to a head yesterday in a fight in which Hansen was apparently beaten by Evans.

Hansen is a young man of good habits and has many friends throughout the valley. He was arrested by police officers from Cleelum, and will have a preliminary hearing at that place tomorrow. Evans' body was removed to Cleelum. Coroner Gault may hold an inquest.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable.

Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment.
Halls' Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J.
Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Halls' Catarrh Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
